

Le Haut Païs Merlot Cabernet

In the Middle Ages, Périgord wines passed through the barge through the Dordogne to the port of Bordeaux. These wines take the name of HAUT PAYS or "HAUT PAIS" wines. They have a European reputation. With reference to this auspicious period in the history of Périgord, the Vignerons Coopérations du Périgord have imagined a range reflecting all our expertise.

VINEYARD

The vineyard is situated in the Périgord Pourpre region in the South-West of France, around the famous town of Bergerac, on clayey-calcareous soils. The IGP Périgord have been recognized Indication Géographique Protégée (IGP) in 1996.
